In the October issue of The Rotarian, RI President Ron Burton reminds us of our second Avenue of service: vocational service. Highlighted below are some of his remarks.

"While some Rotarians call this the 'forgotten' area of service, vocational service is the avenue through which we serve so often, we don't always recognize it as service. Vocational service has its roots in the second object of Rotary, which encourages all Rotarians to hold high ethical standards in our business affairs and our professions, to recognize all useful occupations as worthy of respect, and to dignify work as an opportunity to serve society."

We should strive to uphold this second Avenue of Service. For example, include visiting Rotarians' classifications during their introductions.

Also, really become familiar with our colleagues' classifications and the underlying importance of their vocations.

RALPH BOYAJIAN

President-Elect

PS: Please see the attached 'Request to Consider' from Marsha Wagner.

Points to ponder for tonight and forever.
