Lisa Pollack CA Olive Oil Commission

Oct 13th 2016

A discussion of the history of the olive oil industry in California, which dates back to the 18th century, and a look at the industry today and its emergence as one of California's fastest growing specialty crops. Included will be a discussion of the California Olive Oil Council, a 501c6 trade organization, and the role it has played in establishing and enforcing quality standards for olive oil across the state.

LISA POLLACK, MARKETING DIRECTOR, CALIFORNIA OLIVE OIL COUNCIL

Lisa Pollack joined the California Olive Oil Council in 2013 and has since refined her ability to appreciate fresh, California extra virgin olive oil. As the marketing director, Lisa oversees the organization's Seal Certification Program, which verifies the quality of all COOC members' oil. Additionally, she works on marketing campaigns to promote California olive oil through educational seminars, trade shows and events. Lisa has a background working with nonprofits and also spent time abroad teaching in South Korea. Lisa harvested olives in New Zealand in 2013 and with this experience her allegiance to fresh, quality olive oil was born.

VINCENT RICCHIUTI, DIRECTOR OF OPERATIONS, P-R FARMS/ENZO OLIVE OIL COMPANY

Vincent represents the fourth generation of his family farming in the heart of the San Joaquin Valley. P-R Farms, Inc. is the parent company of ENZO Olive Oil and Enzo's Table, a retail farm market store. Vincent has taken on the leadership role in the milling and marketing of their premium estate grown organic extra virgin olive oil and serves as vice president on the COOC board of directors and marketing chair.

Mayoral Election Lee Brand

Oct 20th 2016

Lee

Brand grew up poor, but proud on McKenzie Street in Southeast Fresno. A graduate of Roosevelt High School, Lee was the first member of his family to attend college, where he earned three degrees in three years from Fresno City College, California State University Fresno and then finishing with a Masters in Public Administration from the University of Southern California.

FAMILY AND BUSINESS

Married for 37 years to Trish, Lee has four children and three grandchildren. He started a business in 1978 that has grown to become Westco Equities, a diverse property management, real estate and construction business that employs 150 people.

COMMUNITY SERVICE

Lee ran for City Council in 2008 in order to give back to the community that has done so much for him and his family. Lee has used his business experience and knowledge to improve Fresno in many ways, including fixing Fresno's streetlights, which were going dark faster than City crews could replace the copper wire that criminals and drug addicts were stealing.

Now Lee Brand wants to use his knowledge and experience to keep moving Fresno forward and make a safe and prosperous community we can all be proud of.

Mayoral Election Henry Perea

Oct 27th 2016

Supervisor Perea's candidacy for Fresno Mayor.

FRESNO WILL INCREASE PATROL OFFICERS

I drove a patrol car and have been caught in the line of fire while working as a police reserve officer for 15 years. I will take 50 cops out of desk jobs and special units, and put them back on patrol to better combat criminals and panhandlers...without costing taxpayers a dime.

FRESNO WILL STOP SLUMLORDS

I will not surrender one more neighborhood to slumlords. I will take back the areas we've lost by restoring code enforcement to the full force...and I will pay for it out the pockets of irresponsible outsiders who are causing the problems.

FRESNO WILL CREATE QUALITY JOBS

In my professional life, I've handled human resources for major institutions. I will give every business and taxpayer a 100% money-back guarantee if their city permits are not processed on time. I will lead the best, pro-business City Hall in the Valley.
