Community Service | Fresno EOC Food Express

By Peter Fortuna

Mo Osman (Right) with District 5230 Members

Mo Osman and President Marsha Wagner of North Fresno Rotary, District 5230 Clubs, and Jim Yovino, the Fresno County Superintendent, are proud to announce that the Fresno Economic Opportunities Commission's much needed Food Express Project is complete and ready to distribute food to the valley's children this summer.

The Food Express bus will serve the valley 5 days a week during the summer break. The bus will make 2 stops a day at 5 locations, 1 for breakfast and 1 for lunch. Each location will serve meals for about 20 minutes.

"The Food Express bus program is planning to reach over 4,000 kids during the summer," said Michelle Tutunjian Fresno EOC Program Director.

The bus will start making rounds this Monday until the last Friday before school starts. The goal is to reach 1,000 kids per week.

Many North Fresno Rotary and District Club Members were also present to support the Fresno EOC's Food Express meal project.
