ACTION ITEMS

Program Committee | Cellphone Donation

By Peter Fortuna

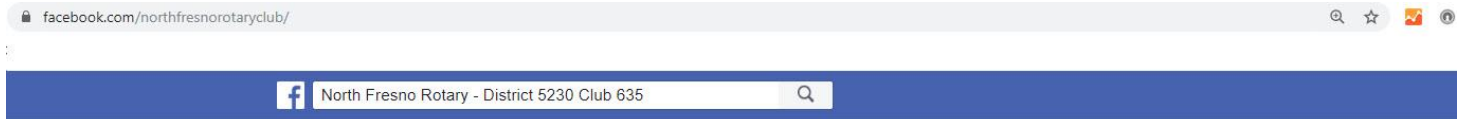

Cellphone Donations

North Fresno Rotary's Program Committee are looking for member donations of their old and unused cellphones with good to awesome cameras to help capture our Weekly Programs for backups and other angles or B- Rolls.

If you, your business, or family has any old cellphones with good to awesome cameras, please consider donating them to our club, North Fresno Rotary.

About CMAC

CMAC is dedicated to empowering voices in our community through media. We offer the tools and training you need to create and distribute high-quality video content that is of interest to local audiences. Our Community Media Center is located in Fresno Met building in downtown Fresno. This modern facility features a spacious 1,000 square foot production studio, private editing suites, meeting rooms, classroom space, and a computer lab, along with a variety of portable production gear. It also houses our automated broadcast center, which delivers programming to CMAC TV channels on Comcast, AT&T U-verse, and the Internet (CMAC.tv).
